

4-H Day at the Capitol

2012 Educational Display Application

Due on or before February 1, 2012

April 4, 2012  Oklahoma State Capitol

“The Revolution of Responsibility” is the focus of the 2012 4-H Day at the Capitol. This year we are seeking educational displays highlighting a member, club or county’s efforts around starting a revolution: “The Revolution of Responsibility”. Displays could include: positive youth development efforts taking place in your community, service learning efforts, resilient youth, stronger families, etc. “. For more information about the Revolution of Responsibility visit: <http://www.4-h.org/about/revolution>

We will be selecting 4-6 county displays that will be staffed from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. by two to four 4-H members from the club or county. Display applications are due February 1. Counties selected will be notified by February 15th. Youth selected will not attend general sessions with the total group but will play an important role by showcasing local 4-H impacts. Lunch will be provided for display participants.

Selected applicants will be asked to create a display that focuses on their “Revolution of Responsibility Displays:

- Each display will be provided a 3ft L x 24in D area.
- All materials to be displayed should be prepared before you arrive.
- Presenters are responsible for their own display materials, handouts and for set up and removal of their displays.
- No electrical support or Internet connections will be available.
- Displays (science boards) are a great way to share information, but when viewers walk by, they spend only 60-90 seconds looking at each one. Displays should highlight the main points of your 4-H revolution in a fun, interesting way.
